

Inter American University of Puerto Rico
Aguadilla Campus
Department of Social and Behavioral Sciences

Minor Concentration in Forensic Investigation

Code – 94MB

Requirements of the Minor Concentration in Criminal Investigation

18 credits

Course	Course Title	Credits
CJUS 1000	Introduction to Criminology	3
CJUS 2010	Criminal law	3
CJUS 2205	Oral and Written Communication for Forensic Investigation	3
CJUS 3241	Forensic Investigation I	3
CJUS 3242	Forensic Investigation II	3
CJUS 4014	Data Analysis for Forensic Investigation	3
TOTAL		18

Declaration of a Minor

According to the catalog, a minimum academic average of 2.00 points is required in the concentration, except for the corresponding certification. The student will ensure that he/she meets the academic progress standards and the maximum time required to complete his/her program of study.

If the student wishes to have the minor concentration certified on his/her transcript, he/she must formally opt for it, using the appropriate form.