

Inter American University of Puerto Rico
Aguadilla Campus
Department of Social and Behavioral Sciences

Sequential Minor in Psychology and Labor Issues

Code – 115L

This minor concentration will consist of 21 credits and includes the following courses:

Course	Course Title	Credits
PSYC 1051	General Psychology I	3
PSYC 3144	Motivation and Emotion	3
PSYC 3300	Social psychology	3
PSYC 3313	Introduction to Industrial-Organizational Psychology	3
PSYC 4000	Fundamentals of the Psychological Interview	3
PSYC 4300	Group Processes	3
PSYC 4520	Crisis Intervention	3
TOTAL		21 credits

Declaration of a Minor Concentration

The student must complete the requirements of the minor concentration before or at the same time as completing the requirements of the degree. If a student has completed the requirements of his/her program of study, he/she will not be able to declare a minor concentration.

A minor concentration will consist of a minimum of 18 credits and a maximum of 27 credits.

A minimum grade of C in the courses of minor concentration is required for the corresponding certification. The student will meet the Satisfactory Academic Progress Standard, the Retention Standard, if applicable, and the maximum time allowed to complete your program of study.

If the student wishes to have the minor concentration certified in his/her transcript, he/she must formally opt for it, by filing the appropriate form, in one of the campuses authorized to offer the degree. The student must take at least one course on campus that certifies the minor concentration.